

Henry An, Samil PwC Partner

Henry wears a number of different hats at Samil PricewaterhouseCoopers (Samil PwC). In addition to his role as Inclusion & Diversity Leader, he serves as Strategy Leader, Inbound Leader and Tax Markets Leader. He has over 25 years of experience providing various types of consulting services in the U.S. (Washington DC, Chicago, New York Metro area) and Korea. Through his experience serving foreign-invested companies doing business in Korea, Henry has accumulated knowledge and insights on a broad range of business topics and is dedicated to helping his clients solve some of their most difficult and challenging issues. He specializes in providing advice on complex business and tax issues and is a recognized as a leading expert in transfer pricing, tax controversy and dispute resolution.

Henry was born and raised in Southern California and is the oldest child of early Korean immigrants to the US. He grew up on American popular culture, hot dogs and hamburgers which were uniquely blended with Confucian values, Korean barbecue and kimchee. As a Korean-American that has been living and working in Korea over the past 18 years, he brings a unique perspective on Diversity and Inclusion.

Henry obtained a Bachelor of Science in Economics from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a Master of Business from The Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. In addition to his day job, Henry serves as Chair of the Board of Governors of the American Chamber of Commerce in Korea.