

Nina Michels-Kim, CMA (U.S.), CSCA, is Director of Partnerships, Korea and Japan for IMA® (Institute of Management Accountants), a global association of accountants and financial professionals in business. As part of IMA's Asia-Pacific regional team, Nina advances local partnerships such as the Management Accounting Association of Korea (MAAK), American Chamber of Commerce of Korea (AMCHAM), and the local IMA Korea chapter run by volunteers. To support the accounting and finance profession, Nina promotes training, continuing education, networking, and spreads awareness of the U.S. CMA® (Certified Management Accountant) and CSCA® (Certified in Strategy and Competitive Analysis) programs. Previously, she served as IMA's Regional Director for Europe, where she helped establish the Europe region for IMA.

Nina is also an entrepreneur and co-founder of Starling GmbH, a finance and business consultancy based in Zurich, Switzerland. An avid business writer, she has authored several articles and blogs. In addition, she has spoken at or served as facilitator, moderator and chair at conferences, events, and panel discussions.

Prior to starting her own business, Nina worked over 13 years as a finance professional in the pharmaceutical industry. She held positions at Merck Sharp & Dohme (MSD) as Financial Planning & Analysis Manager for the Swiss and the Mid-Europe Region, and, most recently, as Financial Controller and Compliance Officer for the Swiss affiliate. Before her career at MSD, she served six years at the Basel, Switzerland headquarters of Novartis Pharma AG in several controlling roles, including Head of Finance for Pharma Global IT. After obtaining her U.S. CMA certification with MSD's financial support in 2007, she founded the IMA Switzerland Chapter in 2009 as a volunteer.

Nina has lived and worked in Japan, the US, and Switzerland. She holds a BA with Honors in International Relations from Pomona College in Claremont, California and an MSc in Foreign Service from Georgetown University in Washington, DC.
